

Trillion Dollar FUBAR

The financial institutions developed and implemented the New World Electronic Process to where only the financial institutions would comprehend and advised the Investors of the World it was all hunkie dorie.

Homeowners bought it: Hook, Line and Sinker.

The common statement heard in the courts for the homeowners'

“Produce the Note; Produce the Note; who is the owner of the Note”

Since the homeowners did not understand what they were purchasing the homeowners were called “Deadbeats”.

Investors bought it: Hook, Line and Sinker.

The common statement heard in the courts for the investors'

“The Risks, The Risks, all the risks were not disclosed”

As the investors did not understand what they were purchasing then investors are “Deadbeats”.

Students bought it: Hook, Line and Sinker.

The common statement heard in the courts for Students Loans'

“The Battle Cry has not yet been heard”

In the future will these young learned person also be labeled “Deadbeats”?

Who owns the Electronic Note In this New World Electronic Process?

“NOBODY”

(The Investors own a worthless Electronic Data File)
